

A romantic photograph of a bride and groom kissing in a vineyard. The bride is wearing a white dress with a flower in her hair, and the groom is in a dark suit. They are standing in front of a lush green vineyard with rows of grapevines stretching into the distance. The lighting is soft and natural, suggesting a bright day.

Godrevy Beach is just three miles away from Poltair's gold award accommodation. Each detached barn has a BBQ lodge, hot tub and children's play area and the accommodation can sleep a total of 34 guests.

The large lawn is perfect for marquees, an adjacent field provides parking for 200 cars and there are three picturesque churches just a horse-and-cart ride away.

The grounds include a pond with a bridge, leading to an arbour complete with wooden bridal arch for outside ceremonies. And the unique glass-top bridal treehouse set in secluded trees means that, later, the newlyweds can spend a magical night under the stars wrapped in fur skins and in front of a woodburner - a truly romantic setting.
